

Sam in Old Hong Kong

When Sam woke up, he looked outside through the window. He was shocked because he saw the old Hong Kong. There were some old buildings and an old market.

Sam went out of his bedroom. Then he went to the old playground. He saw two girls playing hopscotch. He wanted to play computer games but there weren't any computers. He looked strange and the girls were shocked at him.

So a girl talked to Sam, 'What are you looking for?' He was bored because he could not play his favourite game. He wanted to go home and he didn't like the old Hong Kong.

Suddenly, Sam saw a time machine. He tried to go back home. He saw his mum cooking in the kitchen. He was happy because he could see his mum again.
