

Tom's Football Dream

One day, Tom watched a football match with his dad. He was amazed because the football players were famous. After waiting for a while, the match started. Every football player had amazing football skills. All the audience clapped their hands loudly.

When Tom and his dad were cheering, Tom told his dad that he wanted to be a football player. He was interested in playing football and he wanted to be famous.

After hearing what Tom said, his dad arranged for him to join a football team. Tom felt excited. The team coach was delighted to have Tom as his student too.

However, Tom twisted his ankle one day when he was practising with his teammates. It was painful. An ambulance took him to the hospital. Fortunately, the doctor said that Tom's situation was not serious and it would take him a few weeks to recover.

In the end, Tom got well and continued to have football training. He worked harder than before.

6B_Liu Sui Wai