

Naughty Brother

Last Saturday, Amy was at home. She was making a model plane in the living room intently. After finishing the model, she wanted to test it.

Amy went to the garden to test her model plane. Ben walked behind Amy and used a toy mouse to trick her. Ben felt very funny. But Amy was scared by the toy mouse and dropped her model plane on the ground accidentally. She was very angry at Ben's behaviour.

Ben said, 'Amy, I didn't do it on purpose!' Amy ignored him because she was still mad. She did not play with Ben.

Finally, Ben realized he was wrong. He said sorry to her. Amy then forgave him. Both of them were happy again.
