

Betty's Good Idea

It is half past twelve in the afternoon. Betty wants to eat a ham and tomato sandwich because she is hungry. Oh no! There is a lot of ham and there are tomatoes in the fridge but there isn't any bread. They feel sad.

Then, Dad and Betty go to the bakery and buy a packet of bread. They feel happy and excited.

On the way home, they see an old woman. She is thin and weak. Betty feels sad.

In the end, Betty has a good idea. She gives some money and shares some bread with the old woman. She thanks Betty. Dad is proud of Betty. They feel happy.
