

Old Hong Kong 60 years ago

Life in Hong Kong sixty years ago was very different.

There were hopscotch and Chinese checkers but there weren't any fun TV games or mobile phone games in Hong Kong 60 years ago.

In Hong Kong, there were yummy ice gem biscuits and salty aeroplane olives but there weren't any sweet gummy bears or spicy strips 60 years ago.

60 years ago, everybody had cool fans and radios but nobody had refrigerators or air-cons in old Hong Kong.

I think life in Hong Kong 60 years ago was boring because there weren't any iPad games or fun Switch games to play.
