

My New Classmate

Hi Ada,

How are you? I'm writing to introduce you about my new classmate. Her name is Mary. She is beautiful. She is a tall and thin girl with a long face and big eyes. She usually wears a pink dress and headphones.

I always get on well with Mary because she is nice to everyone. She also always shares her things with me. Therefore, I like her very much.

Do you have any new friends? Please write back to me soon.

Regards,

Andy
