

The background is a vibrant illustration of a school scene. In the background, a multi-story school building with yellow and white walls is visible. The building has Chinese characters '屯門官立小學' (Tuen Mun Government Primary School) and English text 'TUEN MUN GOVERNMENT PRIMARY' on its facade. In the foreground, two children are running happily across a lush green field filled with daisies and dandelions. On the left, a girl with dark hair in a ponytail, wearing a light blue school dress, is running towards the right. On the right, a boy with dark hair, wearing a white short-sleeved shirt and light blue shorts, is running towards the left with his right arm raised in a fist. The sky is bright blue with soft white clouds.
