

A Happy Day

It is Sunday. It is sunny and hot. Tom and his family go to the beach in the morning. They get there by bus.

Mum and Tom are swimming in the sea. Dad and sister are making sandcastles. They feel happy.

In the afternoon, they go to a restaurant. They eat hamburgers and drink cola. They feel hungry.

At night, Tom and his family are watching television. He feels sleepy, his family feels happy.
