

A Green Day

Last week, I had a Green Day with my family at home. First, Mum and I turned off the lights when we went out because we wanted to save energy.

Then I threw away the paper plates, plastic bottles and cans in the recycling bins because we wanted a green Hong Kong.

After that, I tidied up the room with my brother because we wanted to keep our home clean.

When I finished the activities, I felt happy.

3B Cheung Lok Yin, Kenson (6)