

What's for Lunch?

Last Sunday, Katarina, Steve, Bella, Aunt Fifi, and Aunt Eve met at the pier at three o'clock in the afternoon to go to Cheung Chau. They were excited because they were heading to the Bun Festival.

As they waited, a pirate arrived at the pier aboard a pirate junk. Steve and Katarina were excited to see a real pirate! Everyone happily climbed aboard the pirate junk and set off on their journey.

Soon after boarding, they began to feel hungry because they had no food. Katarina decided to look for some fish to eat. While searching, she accidentally fell into the sea! Luckily, the pirate quickly rescued her and brought her back onto the junk. To everyone's surprise, Katarina had caught a lot of fish while in the water!

Everyone was overjoyed because Katarina had brought back plenty of fish to share. The trip was made unforgettable for everyone.

3D Chan Hou Yeung