

An Unforgettable Birthday Treat

Sam and his parents had dinner outside to celebrate this special day. There were many restaurants for Sam to choose. He chose Italiano because it was the most popular and delicious. Sam felt cheerful.

They arrived at the restaurant at eight o'clock. Sam felt very hungry because it's time for dinner. Sam said, 'I'm so hungry. I would like to eat BBQ chicken pizza.' His parents said, 'We want to try shrimp risotto.' The food was tasty.

Suddenly, the lights were off and some people sang a birthday song to Sam. A chef brought a cake to their table. Everybody said, 'Happy birthday, Sam!' Then, Dad gave a present to Sam. It was a new toy robot. Sam felt very surprised and touching.

At the end, they all ate the birthday cake happily. Sam was very thankful for his Dad and Mum. He said, 'Thank you very much. It was an unforgettable treat for me!'

4A Lau Yik Sen, Edwin (13)

The Fat Little Mouse

Marco was fat and unhealthy. He seldom did sports. He went jogging once a month. It was because he didn't like sports. Marco ate hamburgers in a fast food shop five times a week.

Mum always said, 'You ought to eat more vegetables and fruit. You can't play online games whole day. You ought to eat fewer hamburgers.' But Marco didn't follow Mum's advice.

One day, a cat saw Marco. It wanted to eat him, so it chased him. Marco felt frightened and nervous. He ran quickly and shouted, 'Help me! A cat is chasing me now!'

At the end, his mum heard that. She went to help him. She took a packet of cat food for the cat, so the cat didn't chase Marco again. After that, he knew that his mum saved him. He said, 'Thank you, Mum. You save me and I will eat more vegetables and fruit! I'm going to do more sports too.'

4A Lau Yik Sen, Edwin